

METRO VANCOUVER BARGAINING COMMITTEE

ELECTED BARGAINING COMMITTEE for

METRO VANCOUVER

Alex Csizmadia (Shop Steward), Dylan Luccock, Murwan Salame (Teamsters Local 31 Business Agent), Riley Sziklai, Cody Biles (Shop Steward).

Cody Biles, a Multimedia Technical Specialist, has been with Metro since 2023. As a shop steward and bargaining committee member, Cody's ability to take initiative, listen, represent, advocate, support, protect, and unite the membership, has made him a trusted and reliable Teamster within the membership.

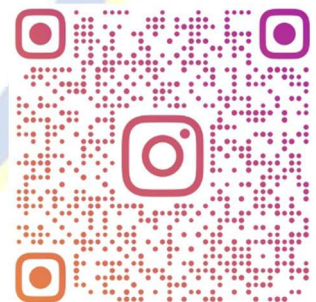

Alex Csizmadia, a Senior Permit and Enforcement Officer, has been with Metro since 2008. As a shop steward and bargaining committee member, a long-standing Teamster, Alex's commitment to his brothers and sisters, kindness, advocacy, support, and empathy have earned him trust and respect. Alex has been instrumental in promoting a sense of community and solidarity within his workplace.

Riley Sziklai, an Environmental Control Officer, has been with Metro since 2008. Riley has served on multiple bargaining committees earning him the trust and respect of the membership. Riley's long tenure as a Teamster, commitment to his brothers and sisters, support, intellect, and guidance, have made him a valuable asset to the membership.

Dylan Luccock, a Tech and Telecom Planner, has been with Metro since 2004. As a bargaining committee member and a long-standing supportive Teamster, Dylan has been instrumental in advocating for and supporting his brothers and sisters, and building unity and solidarity.

The democratically elected Metro Vancouver Regional District (MVRD) Teamsters Local 31 Union bargaining committee is proud to represent the hard-working Metro Teamsters.

Murwan Salame, your Teamsters Local 31 Business Agent and Union Official is also a former Metro Vancouver Housing employee and shop steward. Coming from Metro, being active as a shop steward, and serving on multiple Joint Health and Safety Committees, Murwan understands the day-to-day challenges that his Metro brothers and sisters encounter at the workplace. With strong Union experience, Murwan's patience, tireless advocacy for worker rights, ability to listen, understand, and provide guidance to his Metro brothers and sisters has made a lasting impact on everyone he has encountered. Murwan continuously and tirelessly demonstrates a profound understanding of workers' rights and passion for ensuring that every Teamsters' voice at the Metro is heard. Murwan has been instrumental in fostering solidarity within the Union. Murwan is always present, visible, and active within the membership ensuring that the Metro Teamsters are well taken care of.

TEAMSTERS31

Thank you to all our Metro Teamsters for your incredible support and hard work! A strong and successful Union and bargaining committee come from a strong and united membership that is supportive of one another.
