NOTICE TO TEAMSTERS LOCAL 31 MEMBERS AT METRO VANCOUVER

July 7, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Re: Job Action by Longshore Workers at Ports Throughout B.C.

On July 1, 2023 the ILWU (International Longshore Workers Union) began its job action at B.C. port facilities.

In speaking with Rob Ashton, President of the ILWU, Teamsters Local 31 has been granted permission by the ILWU to cross the picket line(s) in order to gain access to Metro Vancouver worksites within the boundaries of the Port of Vancouver.

If you encounter an ILWU picket line during your normal work routine, please speak with the picket captain and tell him or her that you are a Teamsters Local 31 member working for Metro Vancouver and explain the type of work you perform, before crossing the line to report for your duties. If the picket captain requires further information, request they get in contact with ILWU President Rob Ashton for further details.

If you have any questions or experience any problems at a picket line, please contact me:
