Statement on Tumbler Ridge

February 11, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are heartbroken by the violence that has taken place in Tumbler Ridge.

On behalf of Teamsters Local 31, President Stan Hennessy, the Executive Board, all business agents, and all our Teamsters members, we extend our deepest condolences to the parents and families grieving loved ones, to those who were injured, and to everyone living through an unimaginable shock. You are not alone.

Many workers are also carrying an enormous burden today. School staff, health-care professionals, and first responders will now live with what they witnessed. We recognize their courage and call for them to receive long-term support.

No one should have to experience horror in a place meant for learning and safety. We join Canadians across the country in mourning and in sending strength to Tumbler Ridge.

Fraternally yours,

Murwan Salame
